DO NOT MISS OUT!

FACEBOOK

Many of the networking sites come and go (or charge you) so we have www.PirateReunion.com for those who don't use Facebook. We do have an Alumni group - join Harbor High School Alumni (Santa Cruz, CA) (Just search for this). Discussion groups have been set up for each decade. (For those that still have that school rivalry running through your blood---Soquel High just passed us in number of members...Post it on your status and go invite your classmates) PIRATES RULE!!

WHERE HAVE ALL THE PIRATES GONE?

Please keep telling people about www.PirateReunion.com - a website for Harbor Alumni, run by Harbor Alumni. (We even answer emails personally!)

BEWARE OF FAKE PIRATES!! Beware of pay to play reunion websites such as www.classmates.com and www.alumniclass.com (we suggest you block newsletter@alumniclass.com or cancel if you have signed up with this company) they will charge you for information. We have tried both and they are difficult to work with, they put low limits and it makes it hard to get the word out quickly—thus we created www.PirateReunion.com it offers you all the same information at no charge! If there is a feature that we do not offer and Facebook does not offer please let us know and we will see what we can do to make it your Alumni site!

PHOTOS

We are looking for photos of groups of Alumni from a reunion, a weekend get together or a graduation or other event - please send these, including full names indentifying who is in the photo to info@pirateReunion.com - we will try to get these posted on the website for all to see!

LOOK ON YOUR SHELVES FOR THOSE YEARBOOKS

We are looking for someone from classes 1980-2009 who can help us compile the class lists (Scanning your classes from the yearbook) and might have access to the yearbooks for their years. We are talking 1-2 hours at most but we could use your help. If you have even more time and want to help---please contact us at info@PirateReunion.com

HAVE YOU MOVED OR CHANGED EMAIL?

If you move or change your email address, please re-register at www.PirateReunion.com - We don't want to lose touch with you! Make sure you have added info@pirateReunion.com to your email address book. We are hearing some classmates are missing some newsletters---pass this on to your friends!
