Harbor High Homecoming Weekend!!

It is a party!!!

(Remember all those spirit week adventures!!)

Join us for the Harbor Homecoming Game on Nov. 9th!
Harbor Pirates vs. Soquel Knights – at Santa Cruz High Stadium
JV Game starts at 5 PM
Varsity starts at 7:30 PM.

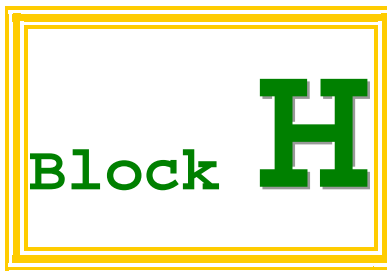

Look for the Green and Gold Balloons at the game to hook up with other Harbor Alumni and let's cheer on the Pirates just like in the 'Good Ole Days' (or join us at the Crow's Nest at 5 PM for pre-game indulgence, also like the 'good ole days' for some, then we can go to the game from there!).

Who knows, maybe we'll even come up with some new ideas on how to leave our mark on the current young pup student population and staff at Harbor..... come hook up with us and get creative!

Be sure and get out your old Green and Gold attire – like that Letterman's jacket or the cheerleading sweater, rowdy rooter t-shirt or how about an old football jersey? If nothing else, how about borrowing that pirate hat from your kids / grandkids Halloween costume?

Or you can even order some current Pirate Wear

BUT WAIT THERE IS MORE....

Here's an opportunity to support the HHS Athletic Program -

Sat, Nov. 10, 1 - 5 PM, Moe's Alley

Silent and Live Auction, Adult beverages, great Rock and Roll band, Incredible Food catered by none other than our very own JoAnn Hughes, and lots of opportunities to support the Harbor Athletic program. Another chance to hook up with some Harbor Alumni and support the school as well! For more detailed information, visit the home page at www.PirateReunion.com.

While you're there be sure and check out the new Guestbook (some folks could not work the forum so we made it easy for you) at www.PirateReunion.com. Some new Pirates have surfaced, and are posting notes, leaving messages, and generally havin' a great time.

Stop by and leave a note yourself - we all would love to hear from YOU!

And, as always, pass along the website address to anyone who knows anyone who was / is associated with Harbor and have them register so we can keep everyone in the loop on up and coming exciting events like the upcoming Homecoming Weekend!

As always, feel free to call or write us with your questions or updates - info@piratereunion.com
